

BIBLIOGRAPHY:

D.A. Carson, The Expositor's Bible Commentary: Matthew, 2010.

Daniel M. Doriani, Reformed Expository Commentary: Matthew, 2008.

D. Martyn Lloyd Jones, Studies in the Sermon on the Mount, 1959-60

Tim Keller, Logos Sermon Archive.

John Legg, The King and His Kingdom, 2004.

Grant R. Osborne, Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament: Matthew, 2010.

“It's foul and deceitful, they're lying to people
Teaching that camels squeeze through the eye of a needle!
Ungodly and wicked, ask yourself how can they not be convicted
Treating Jesus like a lottery ticket
And you're thinking they're not the dangerous type
Because some of their statements are right
That only proves that Satan comes as an angel of light
This teaching can't be believed without a cost
The lie is you can achieve a crown without a cross”
~Shai Linne, Fal$e Teachers

- 1) Have you ever been fooled by someone claiming to be a Christian but turned out not to be? Why were you fooled?
- 2) Read Matthew 7:15-27. How can you tell the difference between the two trees, sheep, people, and houses?
- 3) Why does Jesus end the Sermon on the Mount in such a disturbing manner? What is he teaching us about how to read it?
- 4) How does the example of self-deceived Christianish people affect your faith? Your parenting?
- 5) What is the difference between religion and the gospel? How is a hypocrite like a ravenous wolf? How do you know you are in?
- 6) What kind of fruits would you see in a false teacher? How can you grow in discernment so you can determine what teachers are helpful and what teachers are not?

Take time to pray for one another.